

GRANT OPPORTUNITY FOR NURSES!

DAISY Health Equity Grant for Research/Evidence- Based Practice: Improving Care and Promoting Healthy Aging of the Older Adult

HONORING NURSES INTERNATIONALLY
IN MEMORY OF J. PATRICK BARNES

Grant opportunities are funded by the Ann L. Hendrich Charitable Fund, in memory of Jim W. Hendrich.

In order to address health disparities related to ageism, The DAISY Foundation is offering grants to support nurses who aim to improve care of older adults. These grants will fund research and evidence-based practice (EBP) that:

- may reduce ageism and the associated clinical and psychosocial risks.
- identify changes in practice behaviors or improvements to existing or new standards of care that deliver equitable care, regardless of age.
- develop and measure the impact of educational and experiential case studies that teach sensitivity toward commonly held negative age biases and/or build cultural awareness to reduce or eliminate them.

GRANT STUDY TITLES

- 1 Implementation of Loneliness Screening for Older Adults in Primary Care: A Feasibility Pilot Study
Organization: Albert Einstein College of Medicine
Principal Investigator: Chava Pollak, PhD, RN; Helena Blumen, PhD
- 2 Ecological Momentary Assessment Study to Identify Real-Time Predictors of Physical Activity among Older People Living with HIV
Organization: Florida State University Research Foundation, Inc.
Principal Investigator: Stacey Patterson, PhD; Dan Song, PhD; Jing Wang, PhD, FAAN; Yijiong Yang, PhD

WHO CAN APPLY?

Registered nurses with any level of experience and working in any clinical or community health care setting.

HOW MUCH ARE THE GRANTS?

The grants will fund research studies up to $7,500 and EBP projects up to $2,500.

WHEN SHOULD I APPLY?

Letters of Intent can be submitted on-line from November 1, 2024 - February 16, 2025.

Funding decisions to be announced the end of May, 2025.

For the full grant guidelines, visit The DAISY Foundation website at www.daisyfoundation.org and look for the Grants dropdown menu or simply scan the QR code with your smartphone.

